Our city prides itself on providing a safe, family-friendly environment, with excellent schools and inclusive recreational programs for all ages.

Our commitment to diversity is reflected in the wide range of churches representing various denominations, fostering a sense of unity and community among our residents.

HISTORIC CHARM MEETS MODERN CONVENIENCE

Our beloved Old Towne area offers a nostalgic glimpse into our city's past with its charming benches, and well-lit sidewalks. Here, you'll find the Chamber of Commerce, City Hall, the Courthouse, a bakery & coffee shop, along with unique local businesses.

SAFETY AND EXCELLENCE

Safety remains a top priority in Olive Branch. Our fire department boasts a Class "4" rating from the Mississippi Rating Bureau Insurance, and our firefighters and paramedics are equipped to handle a wide range of emergencies, including Advanced Life Support, High Angle Rope Rescue, Hazardous Materials, and Confined Space Rescue. The Olive Branch Police Department, accredited by both the Mississippi Law Enforcement Accreditation Commission (MSLEAC) and the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA), ensures top-notch protection for our community. They are located in a state-of-the-art headquarters equipped with necessary tools and resources to protect the community. The department's Facebook page (facebook. com/obpolice) offers insights into its operations and community engagement, including the Olive Branch Citizens Police Academy.

Olive Branch Is Our Town

Americans seek two core things: the opportunity for themselves and their children to thrive, and a quality of life that lets them savor the fruits of their hard work. Olive Branch offers both in abundance!

In Olive Branch, we take pride in our excellent school system, picturesque parks, top-notch golf courses, diverse shopping options, and a variety of local churches. As homeowners, we enjoy established neighborhoods, lower taxes, and affordable, quality-built homes suitable for all income levels.

Olive Branch is also a haven for senior living. Culpepper Place of Olive Branch, situated near a large shopping center, offers convenient living. Silvercreek Senior Living Community overlooks the scenic Cherokee Golf Course, while Olive Grove Terrace features The Arbors, an addition for Alzheimer's care. A short distance from Olive Branch City Park, you'll find a ranch condo community offering a maintenancefree lifestyle designed for active emptynesters. South in Hernando, Wesley Meadows provides a picturesque environment with all the comforts of home, and to the north in Collierville, StoryPoint offers independent living with personalized care.

The Camp Creek area has seen impressive growth recently, with new restaurants, healthcare providers, and even a pet hotel. Olive Branch continues to expand each year, with new boutiques, home repair services, insurance agencies, and more. "Old Towne," located across from City Hall in the heart of Olive Branch, has become a vibrant center for community activities and events. This historic district, nestled between Hwy 178 and Hwy 302 along Goodman Road and Pigeon Roost Road, is characterized by its small-town charm, well-lit sidewalks and paved streets. Enhancements like benches and extensive landscaping create a welcoming atmosphere for residents and visitors alike. The original 1917 Bank of Olive Branch now houses the Chamber of Commerce, and the Cotton Gin has been refurbished into an entertainment district, promising to be a major draw.

In August 2024, the Mississippi Main Street Association (MMSA) voted for the City of Olive Branch to be recognized as a Network Main Street Community. The city believes with this new title comes the opportunity for tremendous growth moving forward. In Old Towne, you'll find an array of businesses, including boutiques, hair salons, an awardwinning bakery, a coffee shop, antique and collectibles shops, a florist, and a health and fitness center. These businesses thrive in buildings bearing historic family names.

Olive Branch's city planners have thoughtfully cultivated a diverse range of businesses to provide convenience and comfort for residents. There's no need to leave town to find quality doctors, dentists, banks, quaint restaurants, great shopping, or exciting entertainment—Olive Branch has it all.

City Hall, located in the heart of Old Towne, houses the City Hall Museum, which features Olive Branch memorabilia and the Perpetual Honor Book of Veterans, honoring local veterans with their photos and accomplishments at no cost to their families. Adjacent to City Hall is The Wesson House, built in 1875 by the first mayor. This historic venue now hosts community concerts, movies, and local events.

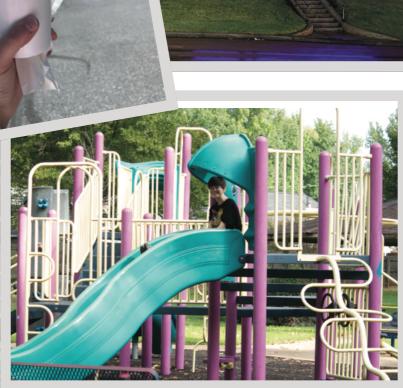

The Olive Branch Arts Council plays a significant role in our community. Local artists are showcased in "Arts in the Alley," a renovated alley next to the Chamber building. The Arts Council is also behind the mural on the corner of Depot Street and Pigeon Roost, which depicts historic landmarks and local figures.

Olive Branch offers numerous family-friendly activities throughout the year. We celebrate with a Mardi Gras parade in February, a Fishing Rodeo in May, a Farmer's Market starting in June, a spectacular July 4th fireworks display, and October features Movies Under the Stars and Trunk-or-Treat. November brings The Light Garden at Olive Branch City Park, and December concludes with the Chamber Christmas Parade, delighting children and families.

Recognized as one of the fastest-growing cities in Mississippi, Olive Branch also boasts one of the fastestgrowing industrial parks in the country, creating abundant employment opportunities.

Even amid rapid growth, Olive Branch retains its welcoming small-town atmosphere. We invite everyone to join this vibrant community and experience all that Olive Branch has to offer.

The Chamber of Commerce, located in Old Towne inside the first Bank of Olive Branch building, is a great resource for residents and visitors. When you're in the area, stop by for all your informational needs. Visit Old Towne, Olive Branch; DeSoto County's Best-Kept Secret!

THE IDEAL LOCATION FOR GROWTH

OLIVE BRANCH IS SITUATED IN THE IDEAL LOCATION FOR QUICK GROWTH IN INDUSTRY. Sitting on the tennessee-mississippi state line, it shares a common border with memphis and is easily reach by highway, rail, air, and water.

> DeSoto County contains several major interstates and highways that make Olive Branch accessible to both the northeast and the southwest. A beltway around the city of Memphis, I-269, was completed in 2019, making travel around Memphis much easier. Ease of travel has enticed many large employers to build their fulfillment centers right here in Olive Branch!

a un Fili

The Wal-Mart Fulfillment Center is over 1,000,000 square feet and was built to support the retailers' rapidly increasing supply chain network and e-Commerce business. Other industrial companies moving to Olive Branch over the years occupy the Belz Enterprises Metro Industrial Park, and the adjacent Olive Branch Industrial Park which is home to more than 80 well-known distribution centers. Snap-On Tools, Amazon, Milwaukee Electric Tool Corp, International Paper, Ardagh Metal Beverage, and Edelbrock Group are just a few of the distribution centers you will find here. Williams-Sonoma's vast distribution space covers 2,000,000 square feet and is one of the area's largest employers. FedEx Ground and Sephora Warehouse are also located in the industrial area of town.

Complementing its Memphis based logistics campus, Barrett Distribution built a 330,000 square foot facility in Olive Branch. This location was designed to support the increased market demand for direct-to-consumer and omni-channel fulfillment services. Also, Recycling Management Resources. RMR boasts a 103,000 square foot workspace, 12 loading docks, and a train rail system.

Many pharmaceutical companies have made Olive Branch their home. Teleflex Medical Inc., Millstone Medical Outsourcing, McKesson Corporation, AmerisourceBergen, and Anda Pharmaceutical are all located in Olive Branch. Some of these medical-related companies are taking advantage of the Health Care Zone act which provides them with incentives to do business here. If these medical companies are located within five miles of a hospital, the act allows them to enjoy tax exemptions and accelerated income tax depreciation.

Several years back the City of Olive Branch bought the Olive Branch Airport. We consider it to be a great asset to our community! The airport is located inside the Industrial Park on 350 acres. With a grant provided by the City of Olive Branch, the airport will install LED lighting on the 6000-foot runway and taxiway. The airport is equipped with a full instrument landing system and the fully staffed tower can accommodate all corporate jets. Our airport is recognized by pilots as the most convenient airport in the mid-south!

Just six miles from DeSoto County you will find Memphis International Airport where non-stop travel to more than 30 exciting destinations is within your reach! This dual-hub (cargo and passenger) airport is the only one in the country and provides an abundance of air services. Our city's convenient location puts our FedEx Ground facility near Memphis International Airport, home to the FedEx Super Hub and UPS Hub.

Corporate incentives, I-269, and, most importantly, the city's welcoming attitude make Olive Branch a prime location to do business and grow industry.

Olive Branch

Olive Branch gracefully transitioned as an Indian Territory a century and a half ago, to one of the fastest growing cities in the state and was named one of the Best Places to Live for Families by Forbes Magazine in 2024.

Our small-town environment is pleasant, comfortable, and situated just 30 minutes south of Memphis, TN; far enough away to avoid congested living, but close enough to enjoy the cultural and financial distribution hub of the Mid-South.

The land Olive Branch is located on was home to the Chickasaw Indians for hundreds of years before Hernando de Soto explored the area in 1540. They remained in the area for another 200 years. The Mississippi Territory became the 20th State of the Union in 1817 which brought a soaring population and the creation of counties throughout the state.

Olive Branch Museum inside City Hall

DeSoto County became one of 10 new counties in Mississippi between 1832 and 1836.

As the population grew, President Andrew Jackson wanted the Native American lands east of the Mississippi River to be open to settlers for farming. In October of 1832, the tribal chieftains signed the Pontotoc Treaty which allowed them to keep a certain portion of their land, but open other areas for settlement.

Milton Blocker and Stephen Flinn were living in Alabama in 1836 when they left their farms and traveled the Mississippi River by flatboat with their wives, who were sisters, to Memphis. After arriving in Memphis, they traveled southeast to the newly created Chickasaw Territory where they met Chief Lush-Pun-Tubby. The Chief agreed to sell them 1280 acres of the Territory and that's where they built their new homes and a sawmill. Many years later, this very land became present-day Olive Branch. The sawmill was located on what is now Blocker Cemetery and Blocker's home was in the area we call Shady Grove Cove. The sawmill came in very handy for all the settlers who were streaming in during this time. Blocker purchased most of Flinn's land in 1840 and is probably responsible for the village's first business; a mule-powered cotton gin. As growth continued, the economy was boosted by the opening of a creamery and a boat factory. Blocker and Flinn are both buried in Blocker Cemetery.

The first church in Olive Branch, State Line Baptist Church, was founded in 1838 in a log cabin. A new building was constructed in 1905 to accommodate the growing congregation

State Line Baptist Church after rebuilding

During the 1840's an energetic entrepreneur constructed pens along Pigeon Roost Rd for livestock to be held in on their way to the Memphis market. These pens produced the first name of our town; Cowpen. The residents were never fond of the name Cowpen, so it was renamed Watson's Crossroads to honor the Methodist minister, Sam Watson. As the town grew, so did the volume of mail to and from Watson's Crossroads and it became necessary to establish a post office in 1846 as well as a new name, Olive Branch. The town was incorporated under that name in 1873 with a population of just 185 residents. Although it is not well documented, it is believed that Mrs. Frances Wilson Blocker suggested the name, Olive Branch; a name with a biblical reference.

Swimming at Maywood as it was in the mid 1960's

The City's first mayor, Ben Wesson, who was also the Postmaster, built a home in 1875. The Wesson House is now the oldest existing home in Olive Branch, located in Old Towne next to City Hall.

The first public education building in DeSoto County was built in 1911. DeSoto County Agricultural High School covered arts and sciences as well as agricultural training. Ledger books containing students' names can be viewed at the DeSoto County Museum in Hernando.

Emerging as the commercial and agricultural center of the area, Olive Branch quickly eclipsed the smaller settlements of Pleasant Hill and Cockrum during the 19th century. J.E. Birmingham took advantage of this growth when he opened the Olive Branch Lumber Company in 1912. The construction boom brought Maples Memorial United Methodist Church, the original Bank of Olive Branch and many other buildings still located in Old Towne. W.T. Woods built the drug store on the triangle in downtown Olive Branch in 1913. He later sold his drugstore to Forest Hamilton, a graduate of Ole Miss Pharmacy School. Mr. Hamilton is still an active member of our community!

1971 brought the Industrial Revolution to Olive Branch. Holiday Inn University and Conference Center was built just a couple miles from downtown along with Olive Branch Airport and an industrial park. Today these growing developments are known as Metro Industrial Park and Olive Branch Industrial Park and continue to bring employment opportunities to the area. The former Holiday Inn University is the home of Whispering Woods Hotel and Conference Cetner.

Further historical information can be found at the Olive Branch Museum inside City Hall or at DeSoto County Museum in Hernando. The Olive Branch Chamber of Commerce published a history book in 2013 which is available for a $20 donation at the Chamber office or can be checked out at the local library.

Anition At Home In Olive Branch

Dlive Branch

The Olive Branch Airport, in operation since 1972, was acquired by the City of Olive Branch from Belz Enterprises in November of 2018. The Olive Branch Airport offers full-service fueling, aircraft parking, a passenger terminal, aircraft maintenance, a 6,000' x 100' runway with ILS/GPS approach capabilities and a control tower for safer operations.

The airfield at the airport was named "Taylor Field" by Mayor Ken Adams and the Board of Aldermen in honor of and out of deep respect for Mr. David Taylor. Mr. Taylor served as Manager of the Olive Branch Airport for 30 years and trained countless pilots who have gone on to make careers in the aviation field. Mr. Taylor passed away on March 23, 2020, but his legacy continues to inspire future pilots and aviation enthusiasts. Mayor Adams says "Olive Branch Airport is experiencing growth and development on a very positive trend. Hangars are being built, renovations being made, and there are four (4) aviation schools operating daily at the airport. Student pilots for military, commercial, and charter operations are being trained at Taylor Field as part of aviation programs for The University of Memphis, Southwest TN College, and Organization of Black Aerospace Professionals (OBAP)"

The City is committed to growing the Olive Branch Airport which boosts the local economy. To learn more about the City of Olive Branch Airport and the City of

We recommend our Members First and provide information to hundreds of prospective clients for you! Maywood Beach was opened by Maurice and May Woodson in 1931, a couple from Memphis who were looking for a destination away from the city.

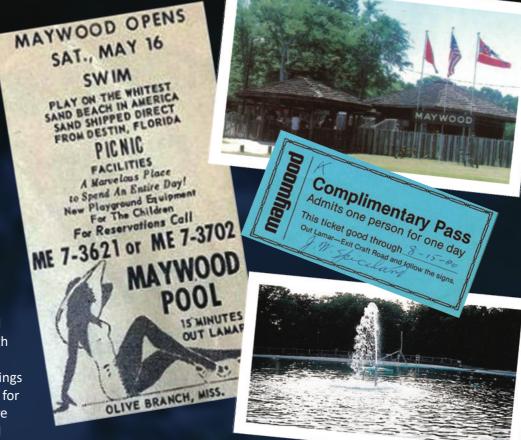

To make this happen, they purchased 400 acres of land with a spring fed lake on the property. They dug out the lake and lined the bottom with several tons of beautiful white sand imported from Destin, Florida. And then they filled the lake by tapping down into a natural artesian water basin below ground which eventually fed into two other lakes on the property. They added picnic tables, barbecue pits, pavilions, a bowling alley, playgrounds, snack bar, and a tearoom and named the complex "Maywood" after Mrs. Woodson.

Maywood was a great success and for many locals, it was the only beach they'd ever seen. The water was cold, clear, with no hint of chlorine. The Pavilion and the Tearoom, along with all the social gatherings and events, really made Maywood a hub for community life. Elvis Presley playing there early in his career adds a layer of cultural history that makes it even more significant.

For 70 years people enjoyed Maywood Pool. When it closed in 2003, it was a huge loss for the area. The news of its closure and transformation into a private residential development left many people with a deep sense of loss. The memories of Maywood Beach are still alive in the hearts of many who had the privilege of enjoying it.

Maywood Beach was located in Olive Branch, just on this side of the Memphis state line.
